FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AVB Promotes Adam Doubek to Internal Control Officer

(Broken Arrow, OK) – AVB Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Adam Doubek. Doubek will be transitioning to the position of Internal Control Officer. In this position, he will serve as AVB’s Enterprise Risk Management Program Manager, including implementation and oversight. He will perform branch audit functions, prepare management reports for internal and external audits and regulatory exams, tracking recommendations and findings, as well as, management response and resolution.

Doubek has been with AVB Bank since 2014, where he has served as Lead Teller and Personal Banker.

AVB Bank Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Randy Waldrup, stated, “Adam has been a quality asset to the bank for many years, and we are ecstatic for him and this new opportunity!” Waldrup continued, “Adam’s background as a lead teller and personal banker will ease the transition into this new role. I look forward to working with him each day.”

Doubek on the promotion, “AVB employs some of the most experienced individuals in the banking industry; their wealth of knowledge and opportunity to learn from them is exciting.”

Doubek is originally from Neosho, Missouri. He received his Bachelor of Science from the University of Arkansas and is currently working on his Master of Business Administration (MBA) in finance. Doubek enjoys spending his time outdoors with his wife, Bethany, and kids, Gabriel, Penelope, and Archer.
